

Emmy's Garden

Emmy wanted a garden...

... a garden with flowers...

...and birds...

...and fish.

But all she had was...

Some frog's eggs...

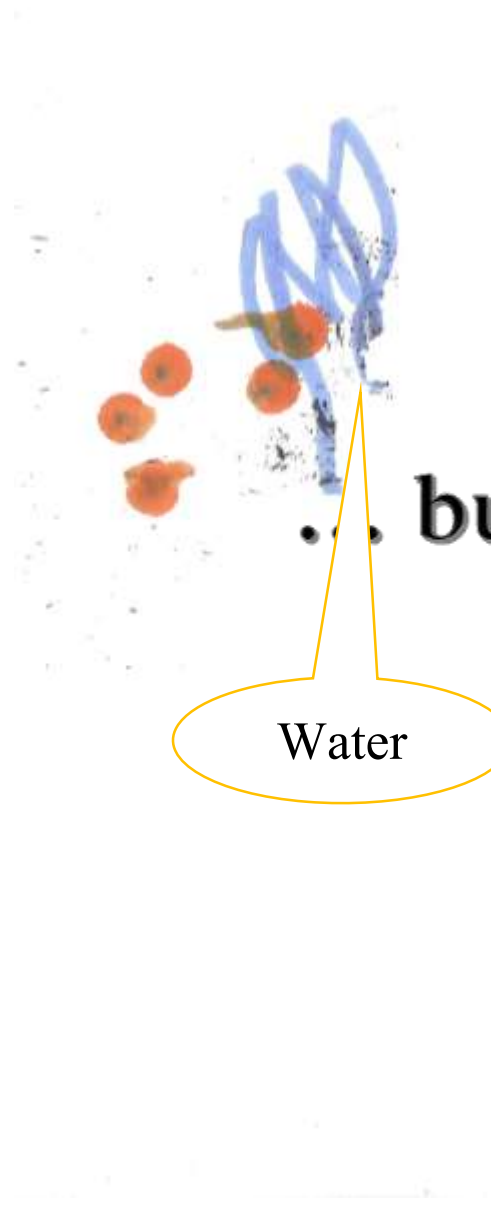

... and one tiny tadpole!

Tadpole

Frog's eggs

So she watered the garden.

The tadpole was happy...

... but there was no soil in the garden.

Water

So she spread some soil...

Brown soil

Brown soil was good to play in...

... but Emmy wanted flowers.

So she spread red garden soil...

...and planted seeds...

and waited for rain.

Red soil with seeds

And that night...

the rain came in big drops,

but it was too dark to see.

The next morning...

There were flowers everywhere...

... red flowers on red soil!

And the next morning...

Emily 22/06/2015

There were bird's eggs...

... and one baby bird!

But what about funny fish? Emily 22/06/2015

Emmy decided to wait for some fish...

... some really funny fish!

When she checked the next day,
there was...

One black fish...

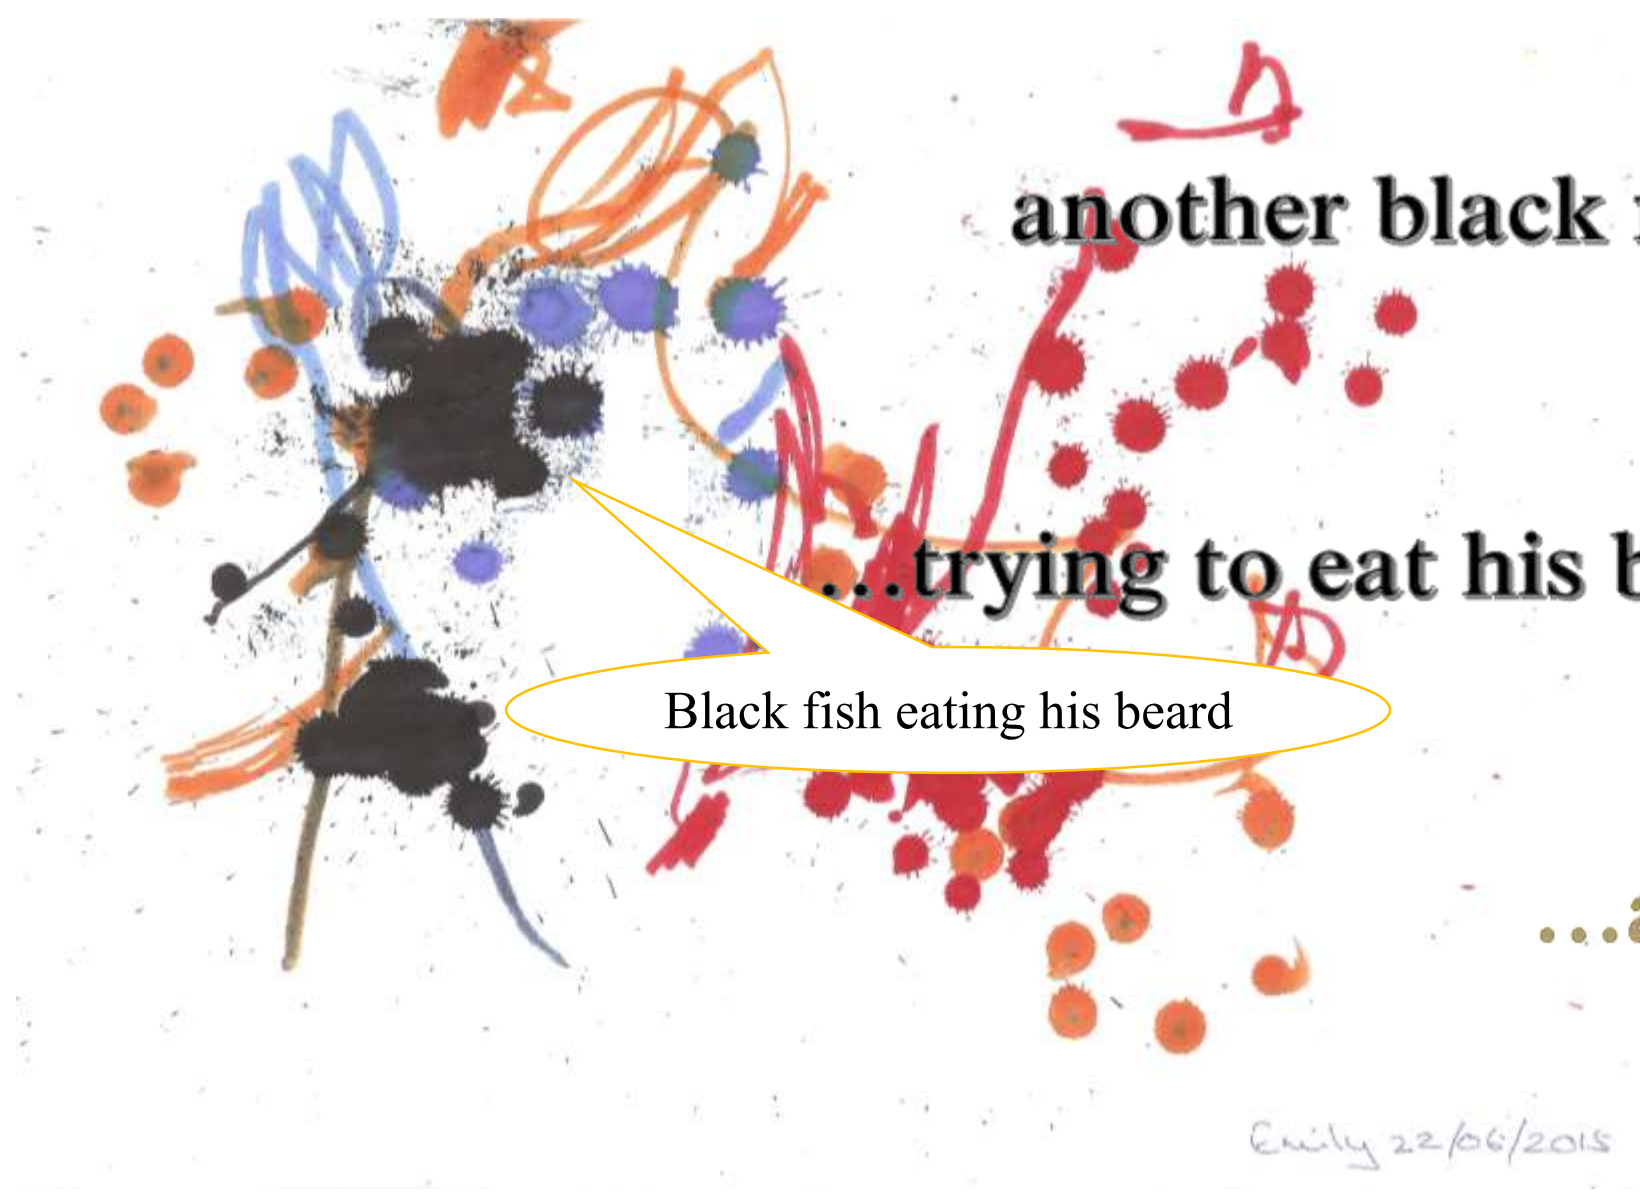

Black fish

... with a round beard!

Round beard

...and...

another black fish...

...trying to eat his beard!

...and...

...pushing his beard with his nose!

Finally...

Emmy had...

...tadpoles and frog's eggs,
...and soil and rain and flowers,
...and birds and their eggs,
...and finally, three funny fish!

Emmy had her very own garden...
